DAY 02: LIMA - BOAT RIDE TO SCENIC PALOMINO ISLANDS - VISIT CALLAO MONUMENTAL

Breakfast at Hotel. In the morning, discover the richness of the coast of Lima on a walk through the Palomino Islands, just six miles from the shore. These islands are home to hundreds of animals, including birds and sea lions. After the tour, disembark at the dock and visit Callao Monumental—an urban art project that seeks to encourage cultural development as a way to integrate the community and improve the quality of life of the residents of the area, as well as the promotion of local artists. As a result of this initiative, the area has been recovered and the artists themselves participate by teaching their techniques to children and young people from nearby neighborhoods, training new talents and giving them a future job opportunity. The route includes visits to art galleries and bohemian restaurants that have become a new fashionable attraction in the city. Finally, a transport will take you to your hotel to prepare you for your flight to Cusco the next day. Proceed back to hotel for overnight stay

DAY 03: LIMA - CUSCO - SACRED VALLEY

Breakfast at Hotel. Check out from hotel. A vehicle will take you to the airport in Lima to take your flight to Cusco (Flight Ticket is not included in cost). Arrive at Cusco complete the formalities. Once in the Imperial City, you will be transferred to your hotel in Sacred Valley. On the way, visit Awanakancha ('The palace of the cloth'), an exhibition of textiles and South American camelids, considered a living museum where they can see these animals closely, interact with them, learn about the techniques of working with wool and buy high quality knitted garments. Hotel check in & Overnight stay.

DAY 04: VISIT TO MARAS - MORAY - TOWN OF OLLANTAYTAMBO

Breakfast at Hotel. Head to crossing the Sacred Valley, to the Moray archaeological site. As many Inca sites, its exact purpose remains a mystery, although its concentric circular terraces design suggests that each level had a different microclimate. Continue to Maras, where the salt lagoons create a stunning scene. The thousands of small ponds provide jobs and help feed many local families. In Inca times, the salt deposits were an important economic center of great value to the imperial economy. Finally, start your tour of the town of Ollantaytambo. Appreciate the Andean essence breathed in the place while walking among its streets -which still maintain Inca urban planning and are inhabited since then- and climb the iconic fortress, built next to the mountain. After the walk, enjoy a delicious lunch enlivened with a show of horses passing before returning to your hotel to rest full of the Inca spirit. Proceed for hotel check in Overnight stay at Hotel

DAY 05: VISIT SACRED VALLEY

Breakfast at the Hotel. Proceed for town of Huayllabamba. Spend a different day in a fun ride to the small town of Huayllabamba in the Sacred Valley. On the way, you will see local people in their daily activities, like working on their farmland for different products. It also passes through the town of Urquillos, famous for the Inca terraces used for the sowing of corn and its colonial houses such as Pumacahua. Finish the route towards the Huayocari farm where you can have lunch, but not before admiring the area known as Huycho. Proceed back to hotel for overnight stay.

DAY 06: EXPERIENCE SCENIC TRAIN RIDE - VISIT MACHU PICCHU - CENTURIES OLD LOST CITY OF THE INCAS

Breakfast at Hotel. Check out from hotel. Proceed to the Ollanta Station to board the train to Aguas Calientes, the nearest town to Machu Picchu. Following a scenic journey through dramatic Andean landscapes, arrive at the station in Aguas Calientes. Here you board a coach for a 25-minute ride to Machu Picchu. The 'Lost City of the Incas' is believed to have been built in the 1450s by Inca emperor Pachacuti as a holiday retreat, yet within a century the city would be abandoned following the Spanish conquest. The Spaniards never found it, so it was spared the destruction they brought on other Inca sites. Instead, it was slowly swallowed up by the jungle and hidden from harm. A guided tour explains the origins behind this awe-inspiring citadel, presenting its most prominent landmarks such as the monumental Main Square, the Royal Quarters, the Temple of the Three Windows, the Circular Towers, the Sacred Sun Dial, and the Burial Grounds. Return to Aguas Calientes for and to enjoy the rest of the afternoon free. Then Check in at hotel and relax. Overnight stay at hotel.

DAY 07: AGUAS CALIENTES - CUSCO & VISIT TO CUSCO PLANETARIUM

Breakfast at hotel. Check out from the hotel. Proceed to train station to board the train back to Ollanta station, where a vehicle will take you to your hotel in Cusco. After a well-deserved rest, transportation transfers you to the planetarium to live an unforgettable experience. You will participate in an introductory talk to better understand the connection of the Incas with the stars. Then you can observe the constellations projected on the dome and even use telescopes to explore the Cusco sky. This activity allows you to get in touch with the Andean worldview, learning from the relationship between the ancient inhabitants of the area and the universe. An opportunity for introspection while watching the infinite sky. At the end of the visit, you return to your hotel. Overnight stay at Hotel

DAY 08: EXPLORE CUSCO - CITY TOUR - EXPERIENCE CHOCOLATE PREPARATION WORKSHOP

Breakfast at hotel. Free time to relax. In the afternoon, enjoy a guided tour of this charming city, which was the capital of the Inca Empire. The tour begins by visiting the Santo Domingo Convent that was built on the Inca temple of the Coricancha, one of the most important enclosures dedicated to the cult of the sun. The ancient chronicles say that its walls were covered with gold leaf and full of golden representations of nature. Then, visit the Cathedral, the most imposing monument of main square. Then head towards the Cusco hills where the fortress of Sacsayhuaman is located, whose imposing walls offer an impressive panoramic view of Cusco. In the afternoon, get sweet in a chocolate preparation workshop where you will also learn about its origin and production processes. Overnight stay at Hotel
