home to many classical and contemporary Irish writers. You will have the opportunity to view the world-famous Book of Kells and to stroll through the beautifully preserved old library. Continue to St Patrick's Cathedral - Ireland's largest church was founded beside a sacred well where St. Patrick is said to have baptized converts around 450A.D. A stone slab bearing a Celtic cross and covering the well was unearthed at the turn of the century (20th). It is now preserved in the west end of the cathedral's nave. The original building was just a wooden chapel and remained so until 1192 when Archbishop John Comyn rebuilt the cathedral in stone. In the afternoon, visit the Guinness Storehouse. Opened in December 2000, the Guinness Storehouse is a whole museum dedicated to Ireland's most famous export, Guinness stout. Entry to the Guinness Storehouse is through a pint glass-shaped atrium capable of holding 10,000 pints of stout, and there is a free pint of the magic brew for every visitor at the end of the tour in the spectacular
