French Revolution. And visit the Sainte-Chapelle This triumph of Gothic church architecture is a cathedral of glass like no other. It was built in 1248 for King Louis IX – the only French king who is now a saint. And also check out the Conciergerie, the splendid palace where Marie Antoinette was imprisoned. This tour also includes a cruise on the river Seine, and a visit to the 2nd floor of the Eiffel Tower. In the evening, take yourself to venture out in the Latin Quarter, which is renowned for its lively atmosphere and French "bistros." Or admire the most beautiful views of Paris, You can choose optional tour (at additional cost) and take in the very best view of the Eiffel Tower and everything else Paris has to offer on the amazing 56th floor of the Montparnasse Tower. Take Europe's fastest elevator up to the top of the tower and prepare to be inspired as Paris stretches out before you. Overnight at hotel

DAY 03: PROCEED FOR THE TOWN OF BRUGES OF BELGIUM

Breakfast at hotel After breakfast, Proceed for Paris railway station. Then take train for Belgium to discover the charming town of Bruges, not far from the North Sea in northern Belgium. Bruges is a simply exquisite town. The intact medieval center of this UNESCO World Heritage site looks like a living canvas painted by an old Flemish master. Upon arrival in Bruges, your guided tour begins with a walk through the city's medieval heart. Highlights include the magnificent Grand Place, quaint houses with elaborately decorated facades, the Halles (an outdoor market with a belfry), the Place du Bourg with the Saint-Sang Basilica, the Gothic-style Town Hall and the Beguine Convent. You'll have free time afterwards to explore by your own, perhaps you can visit the museums of Flemish art or browsing for handmade lace and Belgian chocolates. Once you have spent time in Bruges and shopped for souvenirs, check in at your hotel. Overnight at hotel
